2026 Germantown Fair Livestock Shows

We want to welcome all livestock exhibitors to the Germantown Fair Livestock Shows. The show is open to all 4-H members in Bracken, Mason, Robertson, Lewis, Fleming, Nicholas, Harrison and Pendleton Counties engaged in a livestock project. Gates will open for exhibitors at 1:00 pm each day. Everyone will be expected to pay the $10 admission with a percentage going toward premiums. Registration will begin at 4:30 pm at the livestock office. Showmanship will begin at 6:00 pm. All animals must meet the proper health and identification requirements. Weight classes will be posted on the board at the entrance to the show barn. The remind app will be used to notify the times for the classes.

Monday, August 3rd: Market Beef and Feeder Calves Judge: Ben Wheeler

Tuesday, August 4th: Market Goat Show Judge: Sydney Alsip

Wednesday, August 5th: Market Swine Show Judge: Robert School

Thursday, August 6th: Market Sheep Show Judge: Lily P'Poole

Friday, August 7th: Supreme Animal & Grand & Reserve Showmen Judge: Chase Harker

Premiums will be awarded as follows:

- Top three (3) in each market & breeding class
- Top three (3) in each market species (Sheep, Goats, Swine, Beef, Feeders)
- Top three (3) in the four (4) breeding species
- Top two (2) in each showmanship division of each of the four (4) species
- Supreme Animal & Grand & Reserve Showmen

Showmanship is not mandatory but if you sign up for showmanship you must be willing to be there on Friday night should you be the division winner in one of the species. All showmen will be expected to show in their age group. No one will be allowed to show in the next age group. Age as of January 1st of 2026.

Novice – 5-8 yrs. Old; Clover – 9-11 yrs. Old; Junior – 12-13 yrs. old; Intermediate – 14-16 yrs. Old; Senior – 17 & Up